Wills

If you don't make a Will your property and other assets may not pass to whom you want. The future wellbeing of your family may depend on you having prepared an effective and legally valid Will. Using our specialist knowledge of property, trusts and tax law we will help you cater for a number of different possibilities and prepare your Will so as to maximise your peace of mind.

Will Reviews

You may well have prepared a Will many years ago. However as a result of changes in your own personal family or financial circumstances it may no longer reflect your current wishes. Furthermore, changes in the inheritance tax provisions may also mean you need to review your Will. We offer an initial meeting at no obligation to help you identify whether or not any changes would be beneficial to you.

Lasting Power of Attorney

Have you considered who would manage your affairs if you became incapable of handling things yourself? Many clients have had the foresight and wisdom to ask us, as their solicitors, to prepare a Lasting Power of Attorney in order to minimise the problems should this situation arise.

Tax Planning

Tax law is complex and forever changing. Our specialists can advise you on the best way to plan ahead and to arrange your tax affairs during your lifetime to minimise the amount eventually payable.

Help for Personal Representatives

Personal Representatives are the people named in a Will to act as executor, or the next of kin of someone who has left no Will. Being a Personal Representative has heavy responsibilities and can be legally difficult. This is quite apart from the fact that after the loss of someone close to you, dealing with these matters may prove personally distressing. With this in mind we will relieve you of the burden of probate and help you ensure that the wishes of the deceased are followed.

Long-term Residential Care

It is a fact of life that many people may need to go into a nursing home or some other form of long-term residential care when they get older. It is also true that your capital and home can be expected to pay for this care. Simply transferring the ownership to your children however is no guarantee that your house is protected from being used to pay for fees. We provide advice and practical help on dealing with this and similar situations.

For real peace of mind, simply complete and post the attached Reply Paid Card.
